

COVER STORY - SA FREEMASON - MARCH 1996

"Grand Pilot" Flies High for Freemasonry

This issue's cover features "Grand Lodge One" piloted by Brenton Hollitt, Grand Sword Bearer, flying low over our beautiful State capital.

Brenton operates charter company "Aussie Air." Over the years he has arranged flights for many Masonic groups to a number of destinations; during August of last year he ferried the Grand Lodge team on its installation duties throughout the Northern Territory.

He literally flies the flag for Freemasonry with the Square and Compasses, boldly displayed on the Cessna's tail, creating plenty of keen interest.

Brenton is pictured (photo not scanned) loading hampers for distribution to Kangaroo Island during last year's Christmas Hamper Appeal. The Masonic Foundation, in particular, is most grateful to Brenton for providing his services, free of charge, in delivering the hampers to the Island and to Port Lincoln – Well done 'Pontius' !